About This Game

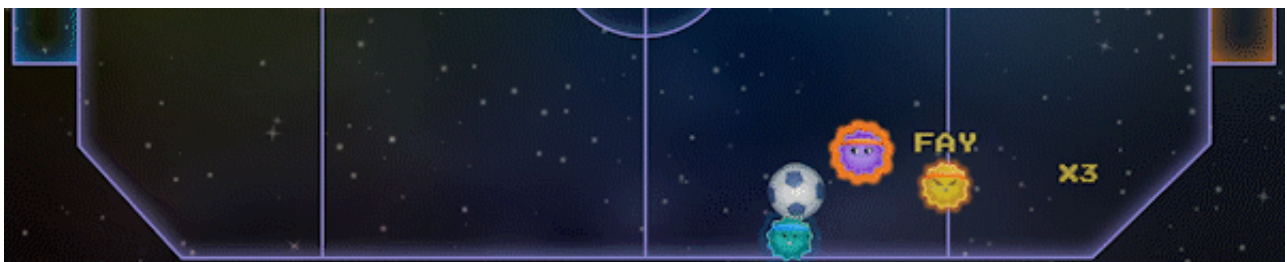

Armed and Gelatinous is a 1-4 player fast-paced bullet-hell space-shooter that pits you against your friends in epic games of blob warfare! Your gelatinous blob grows in size with each weapon you collect, trading agility for firepower. Play at home on the couch or go up against players all around the world with Armed and Gelatinous Online!

Collect, Grow, and Fight

With each weapon collected, your blob's girth increases, along with its destructive power! Massive blobs gain increased health but suffer a loss in speed and agility. Little guys can easily dodge bullets and their supercharged Dash Attack has a longer range.

Score, Dodge, and Evade

Feeling sporty? Between Blob Soccer, Blob Bombardment, and Blob Blitz, there's no end in sight to the amount of fun to be had on your couch or online against players around the world!

English

Easy, fast paced and quirky. Definitely needs multiplayer though, which I hear is in the pipeline. Works on Linux too!. I've had the pleasure of playing this game local multiplayer at various expos and conventions quite a bit. Armed & Gelatinous is a unique indie gem that should be a staple in any local-multiplayer game fan's library. The risk/reward of growing large with guns and becoming a slower, bigger target leads to a lot of excitement during heated 4 player matches. Strategizing where to put your weapons, playing chicken with dash attacks, paying attention to the timing of your guns and using the debris around you to your advantage makes for a very engaging experience. There are loads of ways to configure matches, different game modes, etc. as well that should keep you and your friends busy, and your couch full.
